Georgia Music

Hall of Fame Presents

Pilar Wildar & Hayiya Dance Theatre

Children of all ages are invited to learn about the infectious rhythms and energetic movements of West Africa in a fun and family friendly drumming and dance workshop. The hands-on percussion class will allow students to explore traditional rhythms on authentic West African instruments while encouraging everyone to find their own creative beat. In the dance class, students will learn traditional West African dances that tell stories of hard work, joy, welcoming visitors and celebrating achievement.

$3.50 per child. Two 45 minute sessions.
One dance and one drums.
